Before Filing Find Your Precinct.

Eviction suit or Repair and Remedy case must be filed in the precinct where the property is located. A justice court does not have jurisdiction to resolve issues regarding title to real property (Determining who owns the property).

For additional information on evictions click on the following link:

https://www.tjctc.org/SRL/eviction-plaintiff.html

Small Claims or Debt Claims case the defendant is entitled to be sued in one of the following venues:

(1) County and precinct where the defendant lives;
(2) County and precinct where the incident (or majority of incidents) that gave rise to the claim occurred;
(3) County and precinct where the contract or agreement, if any, that gave rise to the claim was to be performed; or
(4) County and precinct where the property is located in a suit to recover personal property.

If the plaintiff is a non-resident of Texas, or if the defendant's residence is unknown, the plaintiff may file the suit in the county and precinct where the plaintiff resides.
